

Youth Agriculture & Equestrian Center At Joshua Springs Park and Preserve

We have the opportunity to secure up to $500,000 in matching funds from Texas Parks & Wildlife for the Youth Ag & Equestrian Center!

And In-Kind Services & Material Gifts Count toward the Match!

The Kendall County Commissioners will apply on our behalf for a Texas Parks & Wildlife Outdoor Recreation grant for the Summer 2009 cycle, which has a July 31, 2009 deadline. This grant and corresponding match would cover the cost of Phase I of the project, Facility "A", a 63,000-square-foot covered dual use Showbarn/Arena with:

- ❖ livestock & equestrian showing
- ❖ livestock pens
- ❖ horse stalls
- ❖ wash racks
- ❖ bathrooms
- ❖ RV hook-ups

Specifically, Facility "A" will be a first-class livestock showbarn accommodating the unique needs of Kendall County Junior Livestock as well as serve as home to the 4-H Horse Club.

Benefactors have the option of making a donation or a pledge toward this match or may donate in-kind services and materials.
